WAR TIME WEDDING

MISS ELLEN GRACE SCOTT AND CLARENCE J. TRAUGOTT MARRIED IN SAN FRANCISCO

When it became known that Miss Ellen Grace Scott of Glendale had quietly slipped away to San Francisco to marry without fuss and feathers the man of her choice, the cry went up from piqued acquaintances who had not been let into the secret that it was a clandestine marriage, but such was not the case. The mother of the bride, Mrs. Charlotte M. Scott of 1516 South Glendale avenue, in the Tropico district of this city, was perfectly conversant with her daughter's plans and entirely approved of them, and the bride's brother, James P. Scott, was her escort to the train Monday night for the last journey she would ever make as Miss Scott. The following morning she was met in San Francisco by her fiance, Clarence J. Traugott, and the same afternoon, Tuesday, October 1st, they were quietly married at four o'clock at the home of friends in a hilltop garden overlooking San Francisco.

The young people met about a year ago and it seems to have been a case of love at first sight as their engagement soon followed. Mr. Traugott, who was born in Rochester, New York, is the traveling representative of a large eastern concern which deals in leather goods. In these strenuous times it is hard for him to spare time from his business and Miss Scott sensibly yielded to his persuasions to join him in San Francisco, where they could be quietly married and she could then accompany him on a leisurely tour of the Pacific Coast which he would have to make in the course of business. The carrying out of this plan will bring them to Southern California about the first of November, and after that they will be at home in Glendale at 1516 South Glendale avenue, where Mrs. Scott, her son and daughter have resided for the past twelve years and where they have won many congenial friends. As James Scott and Mr. Traugott are both registrants, facing the possibility of both being called to the army, it has seemed the sensible thing to return to the home nest, where the bride has spent so many pleasant years.

When interviewed in regard to his sister's marriage, James Scott was most enthusiastic in expressing his approval, declaring his new brother-in-law "is one of the finest fellows in the world." Said he: "Neither of them thought it suitable in times like these to have an elaborate or expensive wedding. Partly for that reason they chose this wartime method and partly out of consideration for my mother, to save her the excitement and care which a home wedding would entail."

Mrs. Traugott was for a number of years private secretary to the former superintendent of Los Angeles schools, J. H. Francis, resigning her position in that office last February.

INTERESTING MEETING

FEDERATION OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES OF GLENDALE AND EAGLE ROCK

An interesting meeting was held at the Christian church, Glendale, last Monday afternoon, at which a decision was made by the representatives from the different missionary societies of this vicinity, to form a federation which is to be called the Missionary Federation of Glendale, Tropico, Eagle Rock and Casa Verdugo.

The plan and constitution adopted are those instigated by Mrs. Paul Raymond of San Francisco and which have worked out successfully in most of the large cities of California. It is hoped soon to combine these missionary federations of the various states into a national organization.

The aims and purposes of the Federation are: (1) the extension of missionary work; (2) the promotion of fellowship in service by the comparison of plans and methods successfully used; (3) the spreading of missionary knowledge by means of mission study classes, etc.; (4) the spreading and cultivation of a definite prayer program.

Regular meetings are to be held semi-annually, one to be an all-day meeting with box lunch, and the other to be a day of prayer and praise.

The first meeting will be held on the afternoon of November 11 and will be in charge of Mrs. Weien and Mrs. Huston of Eagle Rock.

All women of all the churches of this vicinity are cordially invited. Let us unite our efforts heartily in this Federation and in so doing aid in the extension of the Kingdom of our one Lord and Master.

ENTHUSIASTIC DRILL

750 REGISTRANTS OF GLENDALE AND BURBANK ENROLL FOR PRELIMINARY TRAINING

That registrants appreciate the provisions which have been made for their preliminary training by the Board of Instruction of this District at the request of Provost Marshal General Crowder, was demonstrated at the meeting on the High School campus Tuesday evening for organization, when 750 registrants presented themselves for drill. The Instruction Board was equal to the emergency, however, and the men were distributed in thirteen companies. Besides the members of the committee, twelve volunteer officers who were willing to act as instructors were present from the Hollywood Training School and from Col. Williams' School at Washington Park.

Captain Henry of the Colonel Williams School gave an excellent talk on discipline as a preliminary to the drill exercises.

Captain Wattles, Chairman of the Military Committee, reports there was great enthusiasm and the men seemed exceptionally well disciplined for raw recruits.

A second drill will be held Friday evening on the High School campus, at 8 o'clock.

Tonight, Wednesday, Captain Wattles and other members of the Military Committee of the Instruction Board will go to San Fernando to organize similar drills there for registrants from San Fernando, Lankershim and Newhall. Drills will also be held two nights a week at Eagle Rock for the benefit of registrants in that portion of the district.

LIBERTY LOAN PROSPECTS

Workers in the Liberty Loan drive are hustling for cash and checks and pledges and are apparently rounding up the community's quota in fine style. Some of the teams were delayed in getting to work and part of those who commenced Saturday morning have not been able to turn in full reports, but those who have appeared at headquarters with lists of subscriptions have made a very good showing. They report that Glendale citizens seem to appreciate their individual responsibilities in connection with the national obligation to win the war by furnishing equipment as well as men, and all seem to be responding to the call to the very best of their ability. From the imperfect data on file at Loan headquarters in the office of the Glendale Red Cross, it appeared that subscriptions totalling $43,000 had been secured in two days. The quota for Glendale, including the Tropico District, is $198,000 this time against $111,000 last time, but Glendale went away over the top before and came near tripling her honor flag as she turned in subscriptions totalling about $275,000, or considerably more than double her quota. Patriotism is more highly developed now than it was then and our people are more ready than ever before to do what is expected of patriots, so there is no doubt in the mind of any loan worker that the amount will be raised and over subscribed.

THE NEW FRENCH CLASS

University Extension classes organized by the University of California will begin in Glendale Thursday afternoon at the Intermediate school, when Prof. Louis F. Briois will start a French class which will meet from 4:30 to 5:30. A number of the teachers in the city schools and others have enrolled for this class and all who wish to take up the study of French at this time are asked to present themselves at the Intermediate school Thursday at 4:30 o'clock.

CONGREGATIONAL PICNIC

Ladies of the East Side Los Angeles Congregational Church have invited the members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Congregational Church of Glendale to an all-day picnic at Sycamore Grove on Thursday. A large number of Glendale ladies are planning to accept the invitation and to leave here in a party on an electric car about 9:30 o'clock.

ERNEST MORGAN TO BE CLERK OF COURT

Ernest Morgan has resigned his position as teller in the First National Bank of this city and has accepted an appointment in the U. S. District Court, Los Angeles, as Clerk of the Court. He is very sorry to sever his connection with the bank, but feels he should not turn down this excellent offer.

HINDENBURG LINE YIELDING TO BRITISH

WAS PENETRATED TO A DEPTH OF TWO MILES YESTERDAY ON A TWENTY-MILE FRONT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, October 2.—Field Marshal Haig reports today that the British forces yesterday tore into the Hindenburg line to a depth of two miles on a twenyt-mile front. They reached the Beurevoir-San-Samme line east of Cambrai and St. Quentin and captured Crevecour, Brevy and several other towns.

The Australians completed the capture of German defenses south of Le Catelet.

After hard fighting all day, the British redoubled the force of their attack last night and it was then that Crevecour was taken and a little later Rumilly. They established positions north of those cities

West of Verdun the Americans today continued to repulse a rapid series of bitter German attacks and between times advance systematically and consolidate their positions. The American progress probably will continue slowly but irresistibly.

The French War Office announced the capture of Pouillon and Thil, while their forces reached the southern border of Villers Franeux in the Rheims region and gained entire possession of St. Thierry Plateau which the Germans fought desperately to hold.

Around St. Quentin they drove the Germans back to the south branch of the canal which runs through the city, where violent fighting is in progress.

GERMAN ARMIES FACING GREATEST CRISIS

CRUSHES ON FOUR FRONTS MAKE RETIREMENT ON A FAIRLY LARGE SCALE IMMINENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, October 2.—The supporting trench system behind the Hindenburg line, known as the Beurevoir line, has been broken.

The British 9th Corps, operating in conjunction with the Australian troops, has captured the village Beaurevoir, forming the north end of the defense, as well as Drancourt, eight miles northeast of St. Quentin.

This has enabled the French to push eastward above St. Quentin, cutting off the latter city and compelling its evacuation.

With the fall of St. Quentin, an enemy retreat on a fairly large scale is imminent.

The British successes of this morning in conjunction with the French assault between the Ailette and the Vesle, places a gigantic movement in operation against Laon and St. Gobain massif. The break in the German line resulted from combined American, French and British smashes which were made possible by the French entry into St. Quentin late yesterday.

South of St. Quentin, violent fighting is continuing.

The French are developing an attack against Remissy northeast of St. Quentin.

The German armies on the west front today are facing their greatest crisis since the war. Simultaneous crushes on four fronts have made a retirement imminent.

CAMBRAI HAS COMPLETELY FALLEN

BATTLE IN THE ARGONNE REGION SAID TO BE FLUCTUATING WITH SLIGHT REVERSES BY AMERICANS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, October 2, 4:10 p .m.—Cambrai was occupied this morning, battle front dispatches report today. The city is now believed to have completely fallen.

The battle in the Argonne region was fluctuating, dispatches said. The Americans are said to have been ejected from Esermont. Between the Vesle and the Aisne, the French took 2000 additional German prisoners today.

BRITISH NOW OCCUPY DAMASCUS

WAY OPEN TO ALEPPO, WHERE THE DAMASCUS, BAGDAD AND CONSTANTINOPLE RAILWAYS CONVERGE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, October 2.—It was officially announced today that the British occupied Damascus in Palestine at six o'clock yesterday morning. No particulars are given.

The Manchester Guardian said the Turkish commander asked terms of surrender before the city's fall.

Combined with the French attack on Beirut, the way now is practically open to Aleppo, where the railways from Damascus and Bagdad and Constantinople converge. Aleppo is 200 miles north of Damascus and Constantinople is 500 miles from Aleppo.

SEVEN MILLIONS FOR LIBERTY LOAN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, October 2.—Los Angeles expected to pass the seven million dollar mark in subscriptions for the Fourth Liberty Loan tonight. Estimates at noon placed the figure subscribed at that hour at approximately six millions.

GIRLS' STUNT PARTY

FROLIC IN NEW GYM IS A HUGE SUCCESS ATTENDED BY ABOUT 250 STUDENTS

The annual girls' stunt party, at which girls in the senior class of Union High are always hostesses, took place in the new Gym building last Saturday night and was a tremendous success in attendance and in stunts. The procession when they marched two abreast showed that not less than 250 were there, though no tally was made.

The prizes were Hooverized into honorary records of glory without tangible form, but all seemed perfectly satisfied with the bubble reputation and there were no heart burnings over the awards. The first was won by the seniors with a clever but perfectly good natured take-off of members of the faculty, including Prof. Harry Howe, who appeared on the scene in time to enjoy it as much as the rest. Those who had a chance to see themselves as others see them were Misses Flood, Darcey, Lorbeer, Callawoda, Eggert, Mallory, and Mesdames Gibson and Wilson.

The second premium went to the juniors with a patriotic allegory staged by a class divided between sailors and soldiers, with an explosive cabbage to represent German kultur and a Miss Liberty to smash it properly.

The stunt put on by the faculty was a monstrous headed worm, to which was added a long tail and which traversed the room in a sinuous way with much kicking, in which respect they differed from most of the worms mentioned in the zoologies. The intent probably was to show that though bookworms they

HAROLD COLSON GIVEN ADVANCED WORK

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Colson of 416 West Burchett street have had the unexpected pleasure of a brief visit from their son Harold Colson, who enlisted in the Naval Reserve in May and has been stationed at Goat Island, San Francisco, since then. He is being sent to an officers' training station at Hampton Roads, Va. He is one of three young men who were chosen for further study, having successfully passed a recent competitive examination. He is in the Hospital Corps and will follow that line of study in the East. He left this morning.

PLAN WORK FOR DAUGHTERS

Mr. and Mrs. John Hyde Braly have returned from Santa Barbara, where they spent a week visiting Mrs. Braly's daughter, Mrs. Kirk. Mrs. Braly hastened her return to be home for the opening meeting of the season of the General Richard Gridley Chapter D. A. R., which will meet at her home Thursday afternoon at 2. A very interesting and important meeting is being planned and it is very necessary that every member of the chapter be present as the work of the coming year will be discussed and outlined. A social hour with refreshments will be a feature of the afternoon and Mrs. Braly urges that every daughter be present.

DEATH OF ASBURY B. GORDON

Funeral services were held yesterday, Tuesday, October 1st, 1918, at Forest Lawn Memorial Park over the body of Asbury B. Gordon, who died September 29th at 140 West Los Feliz road at the age of 82 years. He was a native of Vermont and is survived by a brother, Tarbell Gordon of Lindsay, California, who was with him when he died. The services were in charge of Scovern, Letton & Frey.

GOES TO CAMP TAYLOR

Sergeant Patterson, who has been stationed at Rockwell's Field with the aviation corp and who has been the guest of his mother, Mrs. Minnie Patterson of Riverdale drive, during the past week while on a furlough, left Tuesday night for Camp Taylor, Kentucky, to enter the officers' training camp for field artillery. He has gone as far as possible for him to go at Camp Rockwell and is glad to have this opportunity to train for a commission. The course will keep him strenuously busy until January, when he hopes to be sent across the pond.

PUT UP NEW NUMBERS

All residents of Glendale should be prompt in getting new house numbers to take the place of the old ones.

When it becomes known that all houses have the new numbers instead of half of the houses having old numbers and half of them new numbers, there will not be nearly so much trouble for postmen and paper carriers to locate places.

NEW SCHOOL HEAD

DR. SHULTS OF LOS ANGELES IS ELECTED SUPERINTENDENT IN ABSENCE OF PROF. WHITE

The Board of Trustees of the City Schools of Glendale have elected as Superintendent of Schools to take the place of Richardson D. White, who has been granted a leave of absence until June 30th, 1919, Dr. James Shults of Los Angeles, a man of considerable reputation as an educator and a man of varied attainments in the business and teaching world. He was born in New York State and began his work as a teacher when but sixteen years of age. He was graduated from the Syracuse University and was Superintendent of Schools at Reedsport and other cities of New York. He took a medical course and in 1888 came to California with the intention of engaging in the practice of medicine, but finding conditions hard here on account of the collapse of the boom in the southern districts, he accepted the management of the Pacific Coast Agency for D. Appleton & Co., which position he retained for four years. He has also been at the head of the agency for the Northwest Territory of the National Life Insurance Company. This work gave him a wide acquaintance in the business world and much practical experience.

He then became head of the department of Physiological Work at the State Normal School in Los Angeles, a professorship which he held for ten years. Subsequently he founded the Angelus Hospital and was affiliated for five years with the College of Physicians and Surgeons.

His love for teaching has always drawn him back to that work and for several years he has been teaching night-school classes in physiology in Los Angeles High.

Miss Carrie Noble has been appointed acting principal of the Intermediate School. Dr. Shults will do no teaching but will have general oversight of all the schools and be the friend and advisor of the teachers in the absence of Prof. White.

DR. MACPHERSON IN THE SERVICE

"Your paper comes into our home like a friend coming to call," writes Mrs. Nellie H. Macpherson, wife of Dr. W. A. Macpherson from Leroy, N. Y., where they went a few years ago to care for Mrs. Macpherson's aged parents. She goes on to say: "The paper tells us often of the welfare of the dear Presbyterian Church and our friends, and is a link to bind us to the town we so thoroughly enjoyed living in and to which we would all so much like to return.

"Dr. Macpherson enlisted in the Medical Reserve corps and has been at Camp Gordon since June 10 last, and is so happy to be in the service."

SELLS WHISKERS

DR. STEELMAN SACRIFICES POPULAR BEARD FOR PATRIOTIC PURPOSES

The end of a comedy serial or the end of an incident of the serial, was staged Monday evening at the regular meeting of local Elks at their Club House on Elk street.

For the benefit of readers who are not Elks, the explanation should be made that Dr. Stuart Steelman's Van Dyke beard, otherwise known as a goatee, has been the object of the derision of the envious who were unable to sport such hirsute embellishments. Whenever the doctor entered a lodge meeting he has been greeted by bleating supposed to suggest a goat. He has been perfectly serene through the ordeal, knowing the source from which it sprung, but he is also patriotic and made up his mind he would call the bluff of members who had failed to appreciate the Van Dyke. Accordingly, at a meeting held a week ago, he proposed to auction off the goatee to the highest bidder, the proceeds to be divided between the charity box of the Club and the Red Cross. The proposition was accepted and Mr. Kerri was made auctioneer. Cam Thom started the auction with a bid of $7.50 and Stanley Frentz raised it to $10. There being no further bids, the goatee was declared to be the property of Mr. Frentz, the bargain being that the whiskers were to be delivered to the purchaser at the next lodge meeting.

Monday evening last there was great excitement in the Lodge Hall when Dr. Steelman appeared wearing a goatee as usual, but when the time came for Good of the Order Work the Leading Knight announced that he had something to present to Mr. Frentz to be opened there, and thereupon handed to Mr. Frentz a small

MILLIONS OF POUNDS OF FOOD SAVED

New food-saving records were made in Iowa during June and July by families reporting to the home demonstration agents. The amount of flour saved out of the normal consumption in 41 counties in those two months totaled 13,721,465 pounds, with the addition of 103,203 pounds saved in two cities. The saving in sugar amounted to 3,646,625 pounds in 40 counties and 200,000 pounds in one city. Many new canning clubs have been organized, 183 of them having been started in 26 counties. That drying has become a popular means of food conservation in the State is indicated by the fact that agents report they are in touch with 35,558 people in 52 counties and 1,260 people in three cities who are drying surplus fruits and vegetables.

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS IN CAMPS

After struggling for a long time with the knotty problem of conscientious objectors in army cantonments, the War Department now announces that the difficulty has, to a large degree, been solved through the aid of the farm help specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

In the various States where there are farming communities which include sects opposed to war, such as the Dunkards and Mennonites, and where additional farm help is needed, these places are made known to the cantonment commanders, together with a record of their farm-labor needs.

The plan has worked out so well that in the three camps where definite lists of objectors were compiled, practically all of these men have been placed. Camp Meade had 88, all of them now at labor on farms; 100 of the 102 men at Camp Lee have been placed, and the majority of these at Camp Taylor.

Final arrangements have been made for labor furloughs for objectors in Camps Gordon, Ga.; Jackson, S. C.; Dix, N. J.; Upton, N. Y.; Sherman, Ohio; Devens, Mass.; Custer, Mich.; Grant, Ill.; Dodge, Iowa; Lewis, Wash, and Fort Riley, Kans. The labor specialists of the Department of Agriculture in the States where the cantonments are situated have been instructed to communicate with specialists in other States in case they can not place all the conscientious objectors at work at once.

The furloughed men are under strict regulations drawn up by the War Department. They are placed on farms at a standard wage and reports of their conduct and effectiveness are made to the cantonment commander at monthly intervals. If their services are not satisfactory, the commandant is promptly informed of the fact.

The War Department has expressed itself as thoroughly pleased with the arrangements by which the Department of Agriculture, through its farm help specialists, has aided in placing these men where their services will be an aid to victory through food production.

MR. PECK, JR., SERIOUSLY ILL

C. E. Peck and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. E. Peck, left Saturday evening for Calexico for the purpose of bidding good-bye to J. E. Peck, who was expecting to enter the army again, and on reaching there found him seriously ill. Monday his condition seemed so serious that the doctors thought it best to take him in an ambulance to the El Centro hospital, where an operation for appendicitis was performed. The appendix was removed, but the intestines were found to be so badly inflamed that little hope of his recovery is given by the physicians. Mr. Peck returned to Glendale Tuesday evening and will remain here until he receives further word and Mrs. Peck left Wednesday morning to be with her son.

box which, on being opened by the recipient was found to contain the Dr. Steelman whiskers. An explanation of how the doctor could deliver his whiskers to the purchaser and also wear them, was peremptorily called for, but he declared he had carried out the bargain to the letter. Thereupon Barber Rentfrow was summoned to unravel the mystery, but was absent. Doctor Steelman turned his head for a moment and with a clever sleight of hand movement removed the false beard which had been filling the place made vacant by the original. Then a great burst of applause and laughter was the result.

It is reported that a run was also started on the whiskers of Doctor Chase, who has declared his willingness to sacrifice them in a like manner any time the covetous ones can get the permission of his wife. However, Dr. Steelman promises to be ready to part with another beard in about two weeks.

GIRLS' STUNT PARTY

might be, they were not spiritless. Another excellent stunt was put on by the Alumni, represented by ten girls costumed in red, white and blue, who sang popular war songs.

The first of the costume stunt prizes (which were real candy) was won by Dorothy Shaw and Virginia Chapins very cleverly gowned to look like knitting bags of cretonne which reached below the knees and at the top were gathered onto sticks which spanned their shoulders. Their coiffures were wound with skeins of yarn pierced by knitting needles.

A second costume prize, likewise genuine candy, was given to Martha Ray and Marcella Miller who, in the striped uniform of well-known dairymen, drove a "Boob Dairy" cart placarded with pertinent signs such as "sour milk from discontented cows."

The third award, an empty honor, was awarded without opposition to Miss Goldthwaite for a very original and natural impersonation of a rag doll. The stunts were put on about ten o'clock and after that the girls danced until about 11:30.

Refreshments were limited to ice water, which proved most acceptable in the temperatures that prevailed last Saturday eve.

Music was furnished by the pianist of the Howdy Band, and she was some player when she tried her ebony hand on dance measures.

STUDENT ARMY TRAINING CORPS

"Calls for units in the Students' Army Training Camps will be filled through the local draft boards whenever there is an opening in an institution conducting these vocational training camps," says Chairman Lanterman of the local Exemption Board. "Men seeking induction into the vocational units can be sent only as the requirements of the service permit. Registrants are required to have a grammar school education or its equivalent. In the S. A. T. C., or Students' Army Training Corps, being established at the different colleges, the regular form of induction takes place, i. e., the student files his questionnaire, passes a physical examination and receives his competent orders from the school, which are presented to his local Board, where he is properly classified and his records before the Board are completed."

Chairman Lanterman reports that the classification of registrants is progressing reasonably well and that fully one-third of the Questionnaires filed have received final attention. Classification cards will be mailed to registrants showing the verdict of the Board members as soon as order numbers are received and assigned to registrants.

EXTENSION SCHOOLS FOR BEE-KEEPERS

To encourage the keeping of bees and to increase honey production, a series of extension schools for beekeepers is being arranged by State officials of California, who are cooperating with two beekeeping specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. The extension schools will be conducted in various parts of the State during November and December and are especially designed to aid commercial beekeepers.

About 3¾ bushels of potatoes per capita were consumed yearly for all purposes in this country during the 10 years preceding the war. The rate per family is almost 17 bushels. About 10 per cent of the consumption is for seed and starch, mostly for seed.

NEWS FROM T. M. SMITH

T. M. Smith, whom many will remembers as a former resident of Glendale on North Louise street, who was badly injured in an automobile accident a few years ago, is now living in Buffalo, New York. Mr. Smith in remitting his subscription says they are glad to see the paper and to discover from reading it the enthusiasm and interest manifested here in the great cause of winning the war. Mr. Smith says: "We had hoped to be home this fall, but are persuaded to stay another winter. I am glad to report that my nervous condition has made a great improvement. I have been out of doors a great deal this summer and joined the Bowling Green Association and every afternoon put in a couple of hours playing and am becoming quite an expert. I must try to start a green in Glendale. It is excellent and agreeable exercise."

RED CROSS NOTES

Material has arrived at the surgical dressing department of the Red Cross and Mrs. Bullard and her assistants are anxious to have their helpers turn out, as their allotment may be doubled this month.

If people having old newspapers and magazines for the Red Cross will hold them a few days, they will be taken care of. Just as soon as the present drive is finished up and the salvage room is again ready, there will be a drive for one car of newspapers and one car of magazines, the sale of which will almost pay for a motor truck for the use of the salvage department.

VITAL STATISTICS

City Clerk Sherer reports that the number of births recorded in Glendale during the month of September was larger than any previous month on record. It totalled twenty-three. Whether it means that more babies were born here than during any like period he was not inclined to say because he confessed that he had a suspicion that babies are regarded as of more value than ever before and physicians are exercising more care in reporting them. During September, there were about an equal number of deaths, the majority elderly people.

DEATH OF JOHN McNEILL

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon, October 3d, 1918, at Forest Lawn Memorial Park over the body of John McNeill, who died at his home, 218 Hope street, Walnut Park, October 1st at the age of 57 years, leaving a wife to mourn his loss. The services will be in charge of Scovern, Letton and Frey.

THE FOOD SHORTAGE

U. S. GAVE 43 PER CENT OF ALLY SUPPLIES LAST YEAR; MUST GIVE 50% MORE THIS YEAR

Mrs. Charles Hutchinson, local Food Director, attended Tuesday an important all-day meeting at the State Council of Defense Headquarters in Los Angeles, which was addressed by Mrs. Robert Burdette, of the Hoover Committee for California, and by Mrs. Elizabeth Mumford, the County Director.

The meeting, which lasted from 10:30 to 3:30, was full of interest and delegates came away from it with increased determination to push the conservation of food for the duration of the war. Mrs. Burdette gave some wonderful facts gleaned at the conference in Washington after Mr. Hoover's return from Europe. She declared that householders in this country must prepare themselves for four years of food conservation after the war closes until the allies can place themselves in a self-sustaining condition; that no matter how many bullets we have, the war can not be won without food and the food we send to the allies must be saved by the women in their homes by the teaspoonful and the cupful. Last year we sent ten million tons of food to Europe. This year we are asked for twenty-nine millions. She said Germany had plenty of cereals. She also made the statement that in the countries surrounding the central powers (Germany, Austria, etc.) which have been devastated by war, not a child is left under four years of age. She predicted that the nation which saves most will come out of this war the strongest.

As far as sugar is concerned, it was made clear at the conference that we must make up our minds to face a greater shortage than we have felt before. The statement was made that fifty-two million tons were sunk in one week on the Atlantic seaboard and we are now short 38 million tons of sugar.

Figures presented at the meeting showed that last year the United States furnished the allies forty-three per cent of everything they had. This year we must furnish them fifty per cent more. As Mrs. Hutchinson summarizes the situation and individual responsibilities, "it is not what we are compelled to give up, but how much can we give voluntarily."

PICTURES TODAY AND TOMORROW

The picture tonight at the Palace Grand will feature Tom Mix in "Mr. Logan of the U. S. A.," a war story with considerable thrill which shows how a man who was a patriot at heart but scorned by the girl he loved as a slacker, made good in a series of sensational exploits which bring the young people together in confidence and respect.

Thursday will present special attractions in the fine film, "The Street of Seven Stars," a dramatization of the beautiful story by the distinguished novelist, Mary Roberts Rinehart. Like all she writes, it is full of plot and incident and therefore is well adapted to the screen.

THE ANSWER

Folks, take the money we foolishly spend,
Added to that which we carelessly lend,
And put what we pay for unnecessary clothes,
Together with the saving on half as many shows,
All in one fund—and when they're matured
Our Liberty Bond payments are absolutely assured.

C. H. MUHLEMAN.
